

THE TONY CHEESEMAN FOUNDATION

Cordially invites you to their

5th ANNUAL LECTURE

A presentation by the African Heritage Forum Project

'WW1 Caribbean Soldiers on the Western Front'

&

Allan Wilmot sharing his memoirs as a WWII Serviceman and 1950s/1960s Entertainer

Saturday 19th November 2016, 4pm -6.30pm

Stratford Library (The Hopkins Room) London E15 1EL

ADMISSION FREE

PROGRAMME

- Welcome & Introduction
- Research Presentations + Q&A
- Allan Wilmot Memoirs + Q&A
- The Foundation Community Award Presentation
- Closing Remarks
- Entertainment & Refreshments

'World War 1 'The Great War' had major social, economic, psychological and political implications for colonial peoples. Throughout the colonial world, people were called upon and many eagerly volunteered to defend the very nations and institutions which kept them in subjugation and robbed them of their identities'.

Glenford Howe 2002

Nearest Transport: Stratford rail & Underground Station: Buses 25, 86, 69, 257, 241, 262, 473, 276,425,158, 308, 425, 104, 238

For more information: Email tonycfoundation@yahoo.com. Tel 07515962494