

Celebrating the Windrush Generation in Newham 2019

Saturday 22 June, 11am to midnight

Old Stratford Town Hall,
29 The Broadway, Stratford E15 4BQ

A day of celebration of the contributions of Caribbean people to Britain

11am to 1pm

Reminiscence Coffee Morning with the Retired Caribbean Nurses Association

1pm to 4pm

An afternoon of Discovery

- Tracing your family roots workshops
- Health and wellbeing workshops
- Relaxation sessions
- Caribbean Tea Party
- History exhibitions
- Interactive visual arts workshops
- Pop-up bookshop
- Reminiscence workshops
- Steel pan workshop

People are encouraged to bring pictures, memorabilia and their stories to share.

6.30pm to midnight

Evening of live music hosted by Eddie Nestor and Robbie Gee

- Legendry sound Casino Royale Steel Band
- Riddim Squad Band providing a live musical history of Reggae and
- Ska with Audrey Scott, Prento 'P', Gerrie Wade, Okra Banton and surprise guests
- Dancehall and club music from the day from Fifth Element and Mr Funky

All the activities are FREE.

Admission by ticket only for the evening session.

FREE food and drinks for the first 150 to arrive for the evening session.

Tickets can be booked via Eventbrite. Search Windrush Newham at www.eventbrite.co.uk

With thanks to our partners: ANKH Services, Casino Royale Steel Band, Eastside Community Heritage, Fifth Element, Herbs 4 Healthy Living, Kathy Chater, Mr Funky, Nzinga Project Collective, The Refreshment Room, Riddim Squad Band, Sakafet London, and The Tony Cheeseman Foundation

Associated Events

22 June: After Party @ the Refreshment Room

Until 4am, 27 Broadway, Stratford E15 4BQ

24 June: Screening of Hero and Discussion Panel

Stratford Picturehouse, Salway Road, Stratford E15 1BX

In aid of the Rudolph Walker Foundation, which exists to nurture and develop the creative and technical skills and talents of young people and 25% of takings on the night will go to the Foundation.